

What is R.E.A.P?

The Resource, Entitlement, & Advocacy Program

R.E.A.P. can help you:

- Find out if you are eligible for benefit programs like health insurance, food assistance (SNAP), and rent freezing (SCRIE/DRIE)
- Apply for benefit programs
- Connect with legal assistance

All services are provided free of charge.

R.E.A.P. helps with government health insurance programs:

- Medicaid
- Medicare
- Child Health Plus
- Other plans through the New York State of Health Marketplace

If you are not currently eligible for a government insurance program, we may be able to help you apply for Mount Sinai's Financial Assistance Program.

Many health insurance programs cover:

Hospital services

Prescription medications

Lab & x-ray services

Durable Medical Equipment

Medicaid also covers:

Transportation

Dental

Vision

Home health services

What should you bring to your appointment?

If possible, please bring proof of the following:

- Birth (such as a birth certificate, naturalization certificate, passport, Permanent Resident Card, or employment authorization)
- Residence (such as a current postmarked envelope, rent receipt, gas or electric bill, or phone bill)
- Income (such as your most recently filed tax return, last four weeks of pay stubs, social security award letter, pension letter, or an unemployment insurance statement)
- Resources (such as a bank statement, tax return, life insurance policy, or retirement account statement)
- Health Insurance (such as a benefit card)

We do not turn anyone away based on documentation or immigration status.

A referral was sent by the Emergency Room Social Worker and R.E.A.P. will contact you directly.
